

dōTERRA Spa Hand & Body Lotion

Unscented for use with essential oils

Product Description

dōTERRA Spa Hand & Body Lotion is a silky, fragrance-free lotion perfect for blending with your favorite essential oil for a personalized, moisturizing experience. Formulated with conditioning emollients and natural botanical extracts, this Hand & Body Lotion keeps your skin healthy and hydrated.

Concept

As your body's largest organ, your skin is your first line of defense against destructive free-radical molecules and toxins in your environment. Keeping your skin healthy and hydrated is not only healthy and attractive, but also essential to maintaining good health. Dry, dehydrated skin can be also be uncomfortable and lead to a number of persistent and annoying skin conditions. Drinking lots of water, taking a vitamin and mineral supplement, and using a body moisturizer can help keep skin soft, healthy and hydrated.

Choosing the correct skin care product is an important part of maintaining skin health. Many moisturizing skin care products on the shelf today contain harsh artificial chemicals, fragrances, colorants, and other harmful ingredients may cause more damage to your skin than helping it. Some products, although giving the initial feeling of moisturizing, can have a long-term drying effect on the skin. Others coat the skin with petro chemicals and fats in an attempt to cover up the symptoms of dehydrated skin leaving your skin feeling oily and slick.

dōTERRA Spa Hand & Body Lotion is an unscented, light-weight hydrating lotion that absorbs gently into the underlying surface layers of the skin for immediate and long-term relief to dehydrated skin. A proprietary blend of antioxidants, botanicals, and powerful humectants will leave your skin feeling and looking silky and smooth. Extracts of cruciferous vegetables contribute help build the skin's natural defenses against environmental stressors. dōTERRA Spa Hand & Body Lotion is free from harsh artificial fragrances and colorants that can be irritating to the skin. It is gently formulated for hands, body, and even gentle enough to use on the face by everyone in your family. It is conveniently and beautifully packaged in a 200 ml flip-top tube to fit easily in a purse or sit fashionably at your local day spa or massage practice.

Essential Oil Carrier

dōTERRA Spa Hand & Body Lotion has been carefully formulated to blend with dōTERRA's Certified Pure Therapeutic Grade® essential oils for aromatic, topical and sub-dermal applications as a moisturizing alternative to vegetable carrier oils such as fractionated coconut oil. It spreads evenly and can be used as a light topical medium for therapeutic massage using essential oils.
